

Library Services for Seniors

Books Delivered to your home...

Did you know that the Hiram Halle Memorial Staff will bring books to you. If you are homebound and want some good books to curl up with then call the Library and let them know what you want. Library services at their best! Call 764-5085.

Large Print versions of many popular books...

Don't forget to ask for Large Print versions of the most popular books. The HHML has a large collection and can also borrow others from libraries throughout Westchester County.

Books on Tape and CD...

The Westchester Library System has a large collection of Audio Books. The HHML can order them for you if we don't already have the book in our Pound Ridge Collection.

For more details on any Library matters please call the Library at 764-5085.
